Teaching

Feb 2005 – Sept 2006:

Honorary Lecturer in Medical Genetics, Medical University of Mashhad

I was committed to the teaching of 3rd year medical students about the principals of medical genetics. I gave regular lectures such as one on common Genetic Syndroms. I preferred an interactive/tutorial type teaching. Students were give short assignments to do following teaching sessions.

Feb 1995 – July 1996:

Medical English
Mashhad Free Medical University

This teaching post provided me with a great opportunity to improve my knowledge of Medical English, as well as to the students to hear about applied Medical English.
